Colin is married to Judith McCartney and has two children – Colin Junior and Victoria McCartney. Colin served as a Pastor at Parkway Bible Church (A.G.C) in Toronto and his ministry at this church was known for its creative and aggressive outreach to the community and especially to "at risk" youth. While serving as a pastor he birthed many ministries: a drop – in centre for troubled teens, a ministry to young offenders, a ministry to the local high school and a Church for unChurched youth. After thirteen years of serving at this church Colin and Judith created UrbanPromise Toronto and faithfully led this ministry serving vulnerable people in low – income neighbourhoods. After fourteen years at UrbanPromise Colin and Judith had a burden to expand their calling to reach vulnerable people through churches by raising up young adult leaders. Connect Ministries was born "to extend the kingdom of God by developing a mission movement of young adults who will participate with the church to initiate and build sustainable ministries that exhibit the character and priorities of Jesus in Toronto's most vulnerable communities."
